Delve into the fascinating history of the Titanic at Titanic Belfast, the world's largest Titanic exhibition, on a self-guided tour of the magnificent visitor experience. Explore the institution at your own pace in order to discover insightful exhibits detailing the construction, voyage, and legacy of the infamous ship.

Enjoy interactive displays; watch audio visual presentations; and feel your adrenaline levels surge during an exhilarating Shipyard Ride.

Receive complimentary entry to the SS Nomadic with your Titanic Belfast ticket.

HMS Caroline is £10 extra

See audio visual presentations about the Titanic's construction, voyage and legacy Experience the Shipyard Ride and see reconstructions of the original slipways

HMS Caroline First World War cruiser and SS Nomadic

We are looking at doing this on the way to your hotel in Belfast

Explore one of Northern Ireland's most famous natural treasures on this guided tour of Giant's Causeway from Belfast.

Travel into rural Northern Ireland as your guide sheds light on the region's rich heritage and geology.

Take in panoramic views along Antrim's winding coastal roads, and discover top sites of interest including the Dunluce Castle (Game of Thrones) and the Carrick-A-Rede Rope Bridge.

On arrival at the UNESCO-listed Giant's Causeway, spend two hours exploring at your leisure. Then, enjoy a short stop in Carnlough on route back to Belfast.

There is a hop on hop off bus in Belfast
